

NORTHEAST NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS
BOARD MEETING
JANUARY 5, 2019

The meeting was called to order at 9:05 a.m. by Tania Hunt, Chair, at Financial Plus Credit Union on January 5, 2019. In attendance were: Tania Hunt, Valerie Madison, Kevin Marken, Paul Sadler, Linda Westergaard, and Marge Ramsey.

Linda brought up the one cent sales tax ballot that will be held on March 5th. She explained what it would be used for and that it would be audited.

This year is the 125th anniversary for both Grandview Park and Union Park. Linda wanted Union Park Neighborhood and Accent Neighborhood to do something to celebrate the anniversary for the park in each of their neighborhoods.

Next the subject of the Free Little Libraries came up. We need books for them. Kevin will put another notice out asking for donation of books. The supply is running low.

Linda told us what she knew about what is happening with the old K-Mart on Hubbell. Kevin said the gentleman from U-Haul wanted to attend our meeting on Monday but it has not been confirmed.

The Resource Fair is coming up on January 26th. Everything seems to be in place. Kevin has made arrangements with In The Bag to provide lunch. Tania will pick up some bottled water. Kevin talked about the signs and what we want ordered.

Meeting was adjourned at 10:13.

Respectfully submitted,

Marge Ramsey
Secretary/Treasurer
